5.2 Authorised Representatives of Organisations

- 5.2.1 Each member which is an organisation shall, within one month of admission to membership, appoint one named Authorised Representative and one Named Depute. The Authorised Representative, whom failing the Named Depute, shall represent, act and vote for such member at all General Meetings of the Company. The Named Depute may represent and act for such member only in the absence of the Authorised Representative.
- 5.2.2 Any change in the appointment of an Authorised Representative, and/or of a Named Depute, may be made at any time by the appointing member, but only by written notice served by the appointing member to the Company. Such notice will take effect in respect of any meeting taking place 48 hours or more after receipt of the notice to the Company to allow sufficient time for the appointing member to serve a copy of the notice to anyone named therein and to enable the Company to act upon such notification.

- 5.2.3 In the case of any dispute as to the correct Authorised Representative and/or Named Depute serving at any time, the matter will be settled by the Secretary in accordance with the most recent notice validly received by the Company.

5.3 Employees

Employees of the Company may not act as Authorised Representative or Named Depute of a member. A person who becomes an employee of the Company after admission to membership shall automatically cease to be an Authorised Representative or Named Depute thereof.

5.4 Register of Members

5.4.1 The Board shall maintain a Register of Members, setting out all relevant details of each member and the relative category of membership, together with details of the Authorised Representative and Named Depute.

5.4.2 The Register of Members is open to all members of the Company.

5.4.3 The Register of Members is open to non-members of the Company, provided that the applicant provides:

- (a) the applicant's name and address;
- (b) the purpose for which the information is to be used; and
- (c) whether the information will be disclosed to any other person and, if so, the name and address of that other person and the purpose for which the information is to be used by that other person.

The Company must within 5 working days either supply the information, subject to the data protection rights of its members, or apply to the Court for an order that the application is not for a proper purpose (and intimate this to the applicant). Where the information is provided, the Company may charge a fee for providing the information.

5.5 Application for Membership

5.5.1 Any organisation which wishes to become a member of the Company must sign a written application for membership in the form prescribed, if any, by the Board from time to time and lodge it with the Company.

5.5.2 The Board shall consider such applications for membership promptly and shall inform each applicant whether it has been successful and, where relevant, in which category of membership it shall belong, the decision of the Board in these respects being final. The Board may, at its discretion, refuse to admit any organisation to membership.

5.5.3 A successful application for membership will not become effective until payment of the appropriate annual membership subscription has been received.

5.6 Membership Subscriptions

5.6.1 Members shall be required to pay the appropriate annual membership subscription.

5.6.2 The members may at each or any AGM fix the annual subscriptions.

5.6.3 Only those members who have paid their current subscription (where these are fixed) are entitled to take part in and vote at any General Meeting.

5.6.4 If the membership subscription payable by any member remains outstanding for more than three calendar months after the date on which it fell due (and providing the member in question has been given at least one written reminder), the Board may expel that member from membership.

5.6.5 An organisation which ceases (for whatever reason) to be a member shall not be entitled to any refund of membership subscription.

5.6.6 Those members who pay the minimum subscription level, as fixed from time to time by the members in terms of Article 5.6.2 (and which initially is set at £25,000 or more in each subscription year), shall be entitled to appoint one Elected Trustee to the Board in terms of Articles 8.1 and 8.2.

5.7 Cessation of Membership

Any member, or Authorised Representative or Named Depute thereof appointed in terms of Article 5.2, may no longer serve as such in any one or more of the following events:

5.7.1 if by not less than 7 days' prior notice in writing to the Company it resigns its membership; or

5.7.2 if the terms of Article 5.6.4 are invoked by the Board; or

5.7.3 if a resolution that a member be expelled is passed by a majority of at least 75% of the members present and voting at a General Meeting, of which not less than 14 days' previous notice specifying the intention to propose such resolution and the grounds on which it is proposed shall have been sent to all Trustees, all members and the Company Secretary and also to the member whose removal is in question, such member being entitled to be heard at that meeting; or

5.7.4 if it goes into receivership, goes into liquidation, dissolves or otherwise ceases to exist.

5.8 Membership is neither transferable nor assignable to any other organisation or to an individual.

6 GENERAL MEETINGS

6.1 Convening an AGM

6.1.1 The Board will convene one General Meeting as an Annual General Meeting in each year, at such time as it may determine, although the first AGM need not be held in the first year provided that, if it is to be held, it be held within 18 months after the date of incorporation of the Company.

6.1.2 Thereafter, if an AGM is to be held, not more than 15 months shall elapse between the holding of one AGM and the next.

6.1.3 The AGM does not need to be held exclusively in one place, provided that, where two or more members are not in the same place as each other, they are all able to communicate together and vote thereat.

6.2 AGM Agenda

The business of each AGM shall include:

6.2.1 the report by the Chair on the activities of the Company;

6.2.2 the election of Trustees (where relevant);

6.2.3 the fixing of annual subscriptions;

6.2.4 the report of the independent financial examiner;

6.2.5 receiving the annual accounts of the Company; and

6.2.6 the appointment of the independent financial examiner.

6.3 Convening an EGM

6.3.1 Any three or more Elected Trustees may convene an EGM whenever they think fit.

6.3.2 The Board must convene an EGM within 28 days of a valid requisition. To be valid, such requisition must:

(a) be signed by not less than 10% (5% if more than 12 months have elapsed since the last General Meeting) of the members;

(b) clearly state the objects of the meeting; and

(c) be deposited with the Company.

Such requisition may consist of several documents in like form each signed by one or more requisitionists.

6.3.3 Any such meeting convened in terms of this Article shall not be an AGM.

6.4 Notice of General Meetings

6.4.1 14 clear days' notice at the least shall be given of every AGM and EGM.

6.4.2 The notice shall specify the place, the day and the hour of meeting and, in the case of special business, the specific nature of that business.

6.4.3 The notice shall be sent, in the manner specified in Article 17, to all members and to such persons or organisations as are under these Articles or under the Companies Act entitled to receive such notices (including those in terms of Articles 14.9 and 15).

6.4.5 With the consent of not less than 90% of the members having the right to attend and vote thereat, a General Meeting may be convened by such shorter notice as they may think fit in the circumstances.

6.4.6 The accidental omission to give notice of a General Meeting to, or the non-receipt of such notice by, any members, persons or organisations entitled to receive notice thereof shall not invalidate any resolution passed at or proceedings of any AGM or EGM.

6.5 Chair of General Meetings

The Chair of the Company, whom failing the Vice-Chair of the Company (if any), shall act as chair of each General Meeting. If neither the Chair nor the Vice-Chair is present and willing to act as chair of the meeting within 15 minutes after the time at which the General Meeting in question was due to commence, the Trustees present shall elect from among themselves the Elected Trustee who will act as chair of that meeting.

6.6 Quorum at General Meetings

6.6.1 The quorum for a General Meeting shall be the greater of (a) three members or (b) 10% of the members, present via its Authorised Representative or Named Depute as its proxy in terms of Article 5.2. No business shall be dealt with at any General Meeting, other than the appointment of the chair of the meeting in terms of Article 6.5, unless a quorum is present.

6.6.2 If a quorum is not present within 15 minutes after the time at which the General Meeting was due to commence - or if, during a General Meeting, a quorum ceases to be present - the General Meeting shall stand adjourned to such time and place as may be fixed by the chair of the meeting.

6.7 Voting at General Meetings – General Provisions

6.7.1 The chair of the meeting (see Article 6.5) shall endeavour to achieve consensus wherever possible but, if necessary, questions arising shall be decided by being put to the vote.

6.7.2 Each member of the Company is able to attend and speak at any General Meeting and shall have one vote, to be exercised via its Authorised Representative or Named Depute as its proxy in terms of Article 5.2.

6.7.3 In the event of an equal number of votes for and against any resolution, the chair of the meeting shall have a casting vote as well as any deliberative vote.

6.7.4 A Trustee who is not an Elected Trustee may attend and speak at any General Meeting, but in those circumstances may not vote thereat.

6.7.5 The chair of the meeting may permit any other person or persons to attend a General Meeting who otherwise has no right to do so, as an observer or observers. In that event, it shall be at the discretion of the chair of the meeting whether any such observer may be invited to speak thereat.

- 6.7.6 No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered, and every vote not disallowed at the meeting shall be valid. Any objection made in due time shall be referred to the chair of the meeting whose decision shall be final and conclusive.

6.8 Voting at General Meetings – Proxy Voting

Whilst personal attendance at a General Meeting is encouraged, a member shall be entitled to complete one form of proxy in order to appoint a proxy to attend a General Meeting on their behalf, in respect of which the following apply:

- 6.8.1 a proxy need not be a member;
- 6.8.2 a proxy appointed to attend and vote at any meeting instead of a member shall have the same right as the appointing member to speak at the meeting and to vote thereat;
- 6.8.3 the form appointing the Proxy, which may specify how the proxy is to vote (or to abstain from voting) on one or more resolutions, shall be in the general terms (to be varied as required to fit the circumstances) of the form shown in the Schedule 2 annexed to these Articles;
- 6.8.4 the form appointing a proxy and the power of attorney or other authority (if any) under which it is signed, or a certified copy thereof, shall be lodged with the Company not less than 48 hours before the time of the start of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the form proposes to vote, and in default the instrument of proxy shall not be treated as valid;
- 6.8.5 no instrument appointing a proxy shall be valid after the expiration of twelve months from the date of its execution, unless it expressly states to the contrary, in which event it shall be treated as valid until rescinded by the granter in writing to the Company;
- 6.8.6 a vote given in accordance with the terms of a form of proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the previous death or mental incapacity of the principal or revocation of the proxy or of the authority under which the proxy was executed, provided that no intimation in writing of the death, mental incapacity or revocation as aforesaid shall have been received by the Company before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the proxy is used (not having been deliberately withheld);
- 6.8.7 appointment of a proxy may be revoked by the granter by written notice received by the Company not less than 24 hours before the time of the start of the General Meeting (or adjourned meeting) to which it relates; and
- 6.8.8 any reference in these Articles to voting being “in person” shall include voting by proxy.

6.9 Voting at General Meetings – Secret Ballot

A resolution put to the vote at any General Meeting shall be decided verbally or on a show of hands, as appropriate, unless a secret ballot is demanded in the following terms:

- 6.9.1 such demand must be made either by the chair of the meeting, or by two or more members having the right to vote on the resolution;
- 6.9.2 such demand may be made at any time prior to a show of hands on that resolution;
- 6.9.3 a demand for a secret ballot may be withdrawn by its proposers prior to the secret ballot taking place, provided that the chair of the meeting consents to the withdrawal; and
- 6.9.4 the secret ballot shall be conducted in such a manner as the chair of the meeting may direct, and the chair of the meeting shall appoint and instruct tellers, who may cast their own personal votes if members (or Authorised Representatives, Deputies or proxies therefor) and the result shall be declared by the chair of the meeting at the same meeting at which the ballot is taken.

6.10 Voting at General Meetings – Special Resolutions

6.10.1 At any General Meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be voted upon by a simple majority of the members who are present and voting thereon, except for decisions relating to any of the following Special Resolutions, which shall require to be decided upon by not less than 75% of the members present and voting thereon (no account therefore being taken of members who abstain from voting or who are absent from the meeting), namely:

- (a) to alter the name of the Company; or
- (b) to amend the Charitable Purposes; or
- (c) to amend these Articles; or
- (d) to wind up the Company in terms of Article 20; or
- (e) to amend the maximum number of Trustees in terms of Article 7.4; or
- (f) to purchase or sell any heritable property owned by the Company or any of its subsidiaries and to purchase any heritable property wherever situated; or
- (g) to form, acquire or dispose of any subsidiary; or
- (h) to acquire or dispose, whether by the Company or by any of its subsidiaries, of any shares of any other company or the participation or cessation of participation by the Company or by any of its subsidiaries in any formal Company or joint venture; or
- (i) to create or issue or allow to come into being any mortgage, security, charge or other encumbrance upon any part or parts of the property or assets of the Company or to obtain any advance or credit in any form other than normal trade credit, or to create or issue by any subsidiary of any debenture or loan stock; or
- (j) to grant any guarantee or indemnity to any party, other than any wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company; or
- (k) all other Special Resolutions.

6.10.2 An ordinary resolution to be proposed at a General Meeting may be amended if:

- (a) written notice of the proposed amendment is received by the Company from a member entitled to vote thereat not less than 48 hours before the time appointed for the holding of the meeting or adjourned meeting; and
- (b) the proposed amendment does not, in the reasonable opinion of the chair of the meeting, materially alter the scope of the resolution.

6.10.3 A Special Resolution to be proposed at a General Meeting may be amended if:

- (a) the chair of the meeting proposes the amendment at the General Meeting at which the Special Resolution is to be proposed; and
- (b) the amendment does not go beyond what is necessary to correct a grammatical, interpretative or other non-substantive error in the Special Resolution.

6.10.4 If the chair of the meeting, acting in good faith, wrongly decides that an amendment to a resolution is out of order, the chair's error does not invalidate the vote on that resolution.

6.11 Voting – Written Resolutions

6.11.1 Ordinary and Special Resolutions may be passed in writing, rather than at a General Meeting, provided that the terms of this Article are followed.

- 6.11.2 An ordinary resolution in writing signed by or on behalf of a simple majority of all the members shall be as valid and effective as if the same had been passed at a General Meeting of the Company duly convened and held, provided that the terms of this Article are followed.
- 6.11.3 A Special Resolution in writing signed by or on behalf of not less than 75% of all the members shall be as valid and effective as if the same had been passed at a General Meeting of the Company duly convened and held, provided that the terms of this Article are followed.
- 6.11.4 Written resolutions may not be used either for the removal of a Trustee prior to the expiration of their term of office, or for the removal of an independent financial examiner prior to the expiration of their term of office.
- 6.11.5 Any written resolution must be issued in hard copy (by hand or by post) or in electronic form (by fax or e-mail), or by means of a website at the same time, to all members on the Circulation Date (that is, the date on which copies of the written resolution are sent to the members).
- 6.11.6 Where such a written resolution is proposed by the Board, it must include the following express statements:
- (a) an explanation to the eligible members how to signify their agreement to the resolution;
  - (b) how it can be sent back by them, and whether in hard copy (by hand or by post) and/or in electronic form (by fax or by e-mail);
  - (c) clarification that a failure to reply will be deemed to be a vote against the resolution in question; and
  - (d) the date by which the resolution must be passed if it is not to lapse (that is, the date which is 28 days after the Circulation Date).
- 6.11.7 Where such a written resolution is proposed by members, the following shall apply:
- (a) the resolution must be requested by not less than 5% of the members (“the members’ request”);
  - (b) the members’ request may be made in hard copy (by hand or by post) or in electronic form (by fax or by e-mail);
  - (c) the members’ request must identify the resolution to be put to members. The Board can reject this if it is, in its opinion, either frivolous, vexatious, defamatory of any person or would be ineffective (whether by reason of inconsistency with any enactment or these Articles or otherwise);
  - (d) the members’ request can include an accompanying statement (not exceeding 1,000 words) which they can require the Company to issue with the written resolution to all members;
  - (e) within 21 days, the Company must circulate the resolution and any accompanying statement with the express statements referred to in sub-clause (f) hereof; and
  - (f) the Company may charge a reasonable fee to the requesting members to cover its costs of circulation of the members’ request.
- 6.11.8 Any such written resolution may consist of several documents in the same form, each signed by or on behalf of one or more members.
- 6.11.9 Once a member has signed and returned a written resolution in agreement thereto, their agreement is irrevocable.

7 THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

- 7.1 The strategy and affairs of the Company shall be directed and managed by a Board of Trustees elected in terms of Article 8. The Board may exercise all such powers of the Company, and do on behalf of the Company all acts as may be exercised and done by the Company, other than those required to be exercised or done by the members in General Meeting, and subject always to these Articles and to the provisions of the Companies Act.

7.2 Limitation

The members may, by Special Resolution, direct the Board to take, or to refrain from taking, specified action, but no such Special Resolution shall invalidate anything which the Board may have done prior to the passing of such Special Resolution, nor shall it require them to act or refrain from acting in a manner which would be incompatible with their duties under the Companies Act, the Charities Act or Article 8.6

7.3 Delegation

7.3.1 The Board may delegate any of its powers to any sub-committee or persons or person, by such means, to such an extent and on such terms and conditions as it thinks fit, and may at any time revoke such delegation, in whole or in part, or alter such terms and conditions. If the Board so specifies, any such delegation may authorise further delegation of the Board's powers by any sub-committee or persons or person to whom they are delegated.

7.3.2 Any sub-committee so formed or persons or person to whom delegation of powers is made in terms of Article 7.3.1 shall, in the exercise of the powers so delegated, conform to any remit and regulations imposed on it by the Board.

7.3.3 In the case of delegation to any one or more sub-committees, each shall consist of not less than one Trustee and such other person or persons as the Board thinks fit or which it delegates to the committee to appoint. The meetings and proceedings of any such sub-committee shall be governed by the provisions of these Articles for regulating the meetings and proceedings of the Board so far as applicable (and, without prejudice to that generality including Articles 12.4.5 and 12.6) and so far as the same shall not be amended or superseded by any specific regulations made by the Board for all or any sub-committees. A sub-committee may invite or allow any person to attend and speak, but not to vote, at any of its meetings. Such sub-committee shall regularly and promptly circulate, or ensure the regular and prompt circulation of, the minutes of its meetings to all Trustees.

7.3.4 Unless expressly part of such delegation, no decision of any such sub-committee or persons or person shall bind the Board.

7.4 Number of Trustees

7.4.1 The number of Trustees shall be not fewer than three.

7.4.2 The Board may act notwithstanding any vacancy in it, but where the number of Trustees falls below the minimum number specified in this Article, it may only do so for the purpose of appointing sufficient Trustees to match or exceed that minimum.

8 TRUSTEES

8.1 Composition of Board

The Board shall comprise:

8.1.1 one individual elected as a Trustee by each of the members who subscribe in terms of Article 5.6.6 and who choose to do so as described in Article 8.2 ("Elected Trustees"), some or all of whom will be the Subscribers; and

8.1.2 up to three individuals co-opted as Trustees in terms of Article 8.4 (and specifically subject to the proviso therein) ("Co-opted Trustees").

8.2 Elected Trustees

- 8.2.1 On receipt of the Notice for each AGM of the Company (or if and whenever one or more AGMs are not held, then on an anniversary date set by the Board), each of the members which subscribes in terms of Article 5.6.6 in that subscription year may serve a written notice on the Company to intimate the Trustee being elected by it at the AGM (or anniversary date) for the period until the next AGM (or next anniversary date). If sent, such written notice must be received by the Company not less than forty-eight hours before the start of the AGM (or by noon on the anniversary date), failing which the Trustee previously appointed by it (if any) shall remain in office (so long as the electing member in question is still subscribing in terms of Article 5.6.6).
- 8.2.2 A member which subscribes in terms of Article 5.6.6 may elect or remove its own elected Trustee or Trustees at any time, by written notice to that effect served on the Company not less than forty-eight hours before the Board meeting at which the change is to take effect. Any notice intimated within forty-eight hours of a meeting of the Board or of the members of the Company shall not take effect until the following Board meeting.

8.3 Alternate Trustees

An Elected Trustee may appoint an Alternate Trustee to attend any Board meeting on their behalf, subject to the following provisions:

- 8.3.1 such an appointment should be made sparingly, in exceptional circumstances only;
- 8.3.2 where such an appointment is made, it does not remove any element of responsibility or liability from the Elected Trustee in question; and
- 8.3.3 where an Alternate Trustee is appointed, they will be an individual previously intimated to the Company by the Elected Trustee in question as their Alternate Trustee.

8.4 Co-opted Trustees

Up to three individuals may be co-opted from time to time by the Board of Trustees itself, provided that at no time can the number of Co-opted Trustees be more than one-third of the total number of Trustees before co-opting, as follows:

- 8.4.1 Subject to Article 8.4.3, a Co-opted Trustee shall serve until the next AGM after their co-option.
- 8.4.2 A Co-opted Trustee can be re-co-opted by the Board immediately after such next AGM.
- 8.4.3 A Co-opted Trustee can be removed from office at any time by a simple majority of the Board.
- 8.4.4 For the avoidance of doubt, a Co-opted Trustee may participate fully in and vote at all Board meetings which they attend.

8.5 Retiral and Deemed Retiral of Trustees

Any Trustee must cease to be a Trustee if they:

- 8.5.1 are prohibited from being a charity trustee by virtue of section 69(2) of the Charities Act; or
- 8.5.2 are considered by the Board to have been in serious or persistent breach of either or both of the duties listed in sections 66(1) and 66(2) of the Charities Act, such Trustee being entitled to be heard prior to the Board taking a decision; or
- 8.5.3 hold any office of profit or is employed by the Company (except where the provisions of Article 10.4 shall apply); or
- 8.5.4 have a significant conflict of interest which the Board considers has and is likely to continue to undermine their ability to act impartially as a Trustee; or

- 8.5.5 become incapable for medical reasons of fulfilling the duties of their office and such incapacity, as certified if necessary by two medical practitioners, is expected to continue for a period of more than six months from the date or later date of such certification; or
- 8.5.6 are absent (without permission) from more than three consecutive meetings of the Board, and the Board resolves to remove them from office; or
- 8.5.7 resign as a Trustee by notice in writing to the Company; or
- 8.5.8 are prohibited from acting because the member who elected them is no longer subscribing to the Company in terms of Article 5.6.6 during the current subscription year; or
- 8.5.8 die.

8.6 Principal Duties of Trustees

As specified in the Charities Act, the principal duties of each Trustee are:

- 8.6.1 to act in the best interests of the Company;
- 8.6.2 to ensure that the Company acts in a manner consistent with the Charitable Purposes;
- 8.6.3 to act with the care and diligence which is reasonable to expect of a person who is managing the affairs of another person; and
- 8.6.4 in circumstances capable of giving rise to a conflict of interest between the Company and the organisation responsible for the election or appointment of the Trustee to the Company, to put the interests of the Company before those of the appointing organisation.

- 11.3.2 It shall be for the chair of the meeting in question (or if it be the chair of the meeting who is potentially or actually conflicted, it shall be for the other Trustees present) to determine whether the Trustee in question should at the least be required to be absent during that particular element of the meeting.
